

List of Contributors

Terance W. Bigalke is Director of the Education Program division at the East-West Center, and Project Executive for the Brunei-US English Language Enrichment Program for ASEAN. He holds a PhD in Comparative World History. Most recent publications include Leadership for Social Justice in Higher Education: The Legacy of the Ford Foundation International Fellowships Program, co-edited with Mary S. Zurbuchen (New York: Palgrave Macmillan 2014).

Itje Chodidjah is an independent international trainer and teacher trainer in English education. She is also a lecturer in university for undergraduate and post graduate degree. She holds a Master degree in English Education and is pursuing her PhD, majoring in Teacher Training and Development.

Le Hoang Dung is Dean of the Faculty of English Linguistics & Literature of the University of Social Sciences & Humanities at Vietnam National University-Ho Chi Minh City (HCM). He is also Vice Director of the Institute for University Governance of Vietnam National University—HCM. He holds a PhD in Education, majoring in Educational Leadership & Management.

Christine Goh is a Professor of Linguistics and Language Education in the English Language and Literature Academic Group and Associate Dean for Higher Degree studies at the National Institute of Education, Nanyang Technological University, Singapore. She holds a PhD in Linguistics. Her most recent book publication (with Anne Burns) is Teaching Speaking: A Holistic Approach (Cambridge: Cambridge University Press 2012).

Fuad Abdul Hamied is Professor of English Education at Universitas Pendidikan Indonesia in Bandung, Indonesia. He holds a PhD in Education. His publications include “English in Multicultural and Multilingual Indonesian Education,” in English as an International Language in Asia: Implications for Language Education, edited by Andy Kirkpatrick and Roland Sussex (Dordrecht: Springer 2012).

Nguyen Ngoc Hung is senior advisor to the National Foreign Language 2020 Project, Vietnam. He holds an honorary PhD.

Jainatul Halida binti Hj Jaidin is currently Dean of the Sultan Hassanal Bolkiah Institute of Education (SHBIE) at Universiti Brunei Darussalam. She holds a PhD in Education.

Haji Suhaila bin Abdul Karim is the Deputy Permanent Secretary for Core Education, Ministry of Education, Brunei Darussalam. He holds a Master degree in Education.

Somphone Kounnavongsa is the Deputy Director of the Graduate Office at the National University of Laos. He holds a Master degree in Education.

Tith Mab is Head of the English Department at the Royal University of Phnom Penh, Cambodia. He holds a Master degree in Education.

Marilu Rañosa-Madrunio is a Professor of English at the Department of English of the University of Santo Tomas (UST)—Manila, and Dean at the UST Graduate School. She holds a PhD in Applied Linguistics.

Isabel Pefianco Martin is an Associate Professor at the Department of English at Ateneo de Manila University. She holds a PhD in Philippine Literature. Her recent publications on language policy include “Diffusion and directions: English language policy in the Philippines,” in English in South East Asia: Features, Policy, and Language in Use, edited by Low and Hashim (Amsterdam: John Benjamins Publishing Company 2012).

James McLellan is a Senior Lecturer in English Language and Linguistics at Universiti Brunei Darussalam. He holds a PhD in Languages and Intercultural Education. His most recent publication is Codeswitching in University English-Medium Classes: Asian Perspectives, co-edited with R. Barnard (Bristol, UK: Multilingual Matters 2014).

Ju Paw is a Professor and Head of the English Department of University of Yangon. She holds a PhD in English and a Master degree in the Teaching of English as a Foreign Language.

Wai Yin Pryke is a founding principal of the English Language Institute of Singapore (ELIS). She holds a Master degree in Public Policy.

Razianna Abdul Rahman is currently working at the English Language Teaching Center of the Ministry of Education Malaysia. She holds a PhD in Education.

Kiran Sagoo is an East-West Center’s Liaison Officer to the Brunei-US English Language Enrichment Project for ASEAN. She holds a PhD in Sociology. Her publications include Sustaining a Resilient Asia Pacific Community, co-edited with Wilmar Salim (Newcastle upon Tyne: Cambridge Scholars Publishing 2008).

Mao Saroeun is Deputy Head of the Education Department National Institute of Education in Phnom Penh, Cambodia. He holds a Master degree in TESOL.

Khin Sein is a Professor and Head of the English Department and Senator of Taunggyi University, Myanmar. She holds a Master degree in Linguistics and the Teaching of English as a Foreign Language.

Unchalee Sermsonswad is the current President of Thailand TESOL and an Associate Professor of English at Chiang Mai University, Thailand. She holds a Master degree in Teaching English.

Salbrina Sharbawi is a Senior Lecturer in the Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences at Universiti Brunei Darussalam, and Project Executive of the Brunei-US English Language Enrichment Project for ASEAN. She holds a PhD from Nanyang University of Technology in Singapore. Her most recent publications include Brunei English: A New Variety in a Multilingual Society, co-written with David Deterding (Dordrecht: Springer 2013).

Saratha Sithamparam is currently Deputy Dean of Research and Associate Professor at the Sultan Hassanal Bolkiah Institute of Education at Universiti Brunei Darussalam. She holds a PhD in Education. Her recent publications include Realizing Learning. Teachers' Professional Development through Lesson and Learning Study, co-edited with Keith Wood (New York: Routledge 2014).

Chantra Tantipongsanuruk is a senior expert educator at the Bureau of Academic Affairs and Educational Standards, the Office of Basic Education Commission, Thailand. She holds a Master degree in Environmental Education from Tasmania University, Australia.

Alistair Wood is a Senior Lecturer in English Language and Linguistics at Universiti Brunei Darussalam. He holds a PhD in Linguistics. His most recent publication is "Always on: Connecting theory and practice in new media," in ICT in ELT in South East Asia: The 2.0 generation and beyond, co-written with Malai Ayla Surya Malai Hj Abdullah, and edited by K. Kabilan, W. K. Too, and P. W. Handoyo (Penang: Universiti Sains Malaysia 2012).